

Poster Competition 2018: Guidelines for Poster Entry

Presenter Eligibility:

- Undergraduate Student from SFU, who have conducted at SFU, or elsewhere. *Entries may be submitted in groups. Groups exceeding 6 presenters must be approved.

Content Guidelines:

- Research from the following Faculties and their encompassing departments and schools are eligible for entry: Science, Health Science, Applied Science, Environment.
- Research must be conducted, at least in part, by the presenter.
- Research must be no more than 3 years at the time of presentation

Poster Guidelines:

- I. Abstract: 150-250 word limit, providing context for the study, stating the objective of the project, the main hypothesis, and a the main conclusions.
- II. Keywords: 3-5 words summarizing the content of the article.
- III. Introduction: The background, motivation and significance of the research.
- IV. Methods: Description of the protocols and tools used to conducts the study. Figures and diagrams are recommended to facilitate readability
- V. Results: Presentation of the data acquired, please limit this section to relevant observations.
- VI. Discussion: Interpretation of results in the context of the research hypothesis.
- VII. Conclusion: Brief outline of the significance of the research, and applicability to related research.
- VIII. Acknowledgements: Brief and professional acknowledgement of non-author collaborators, assistants, and funding sources.
- IX. References: all citations must be formatted using Vancouver Style

*Review posters are also welcome, and do not require Parts IV and V of the guidelines above.